Cremation Jewelry & Memorials

To Wear and Remember

About Love Ashes

Losing a loved one is never easy, whether a beloved family member, a dear friend, or a cherished pet. As an artist specializing in dichroic glass jewelry, it is my dream to create keepsakes that help keep a loved one's memory close to the heart.

I created Love Ashes in 2006 after the loss of my beloved dog, Kiki. Her loss devastated my family, leaving us searching for a unique way to memorialize her. It wasn't long before I came up with the idea of combining Kiki's cremains with my jewelry, resulting in a beautiful keepsake that I now wear close to my heart.

Since its inception in 2006, Love Ashes has helped hundreds of families create beautiful and unique keepsakes in memory of their loved ones. It is an honor for me to work with each and every family to create memorials that they can be proud of.

Love Ashes' products may be found in fine funeral homes, mortuaries and crematoriums across the US, as well as our online store. At Love Ashes we take great care in the work we do and strive to create one-of-a-kind keepsakes just as vibrant as the lives they represent.

About the process

Love Ashes keepsakes may be designed in several distinctive ways: as a spectacular necklace, a beautiful ring, a breathtaking pair of earrings, or an elegantly framed memorial. The moment that a Love Ashes order is placed, I will start to work on the design, hand-cutting and assembling each piece with loving care. Once the glass is ready, the cremains are delicately added into the artwork and then fired in a kiln. After the memorial cools, I personally inspect each piece to ensure only the highest level of quality. The complex and volatile nature of dichroic glass makes each Love Ashes piece a one-of-a-kind creation and treasured keepsake.

My commitment to you is exhibited through the substantial care and respect we employ with every piece. It is prudence that ensures accuracy and authenticity for your keepsake, and we hope that each piece may become one of your most treasured possessions for years to come.

Lock of Hair Line Pendants

Treasuring a lock of hair is a timeless symbol of love and devotion. Aimed at families who didn’t have a loved one cremated, the Lock of Hair captures the nuances and exceptional beauty of a few strands of hair within a personalized, breathtaking pendant.

To create this pendant, we carefully prepare each strand of hair with fusible glass paints and then trap them between two layers of glass. After firing the pendant in our kiln, the hair burns away but, because of the glass paint, its form, shape, and nuances remain intact. As such, whether hair or fur, no two Lock of Hair pendants will ever be alike.

Round Pendants

The Lock of Hair Line Pendants are designed in nine background color schemes, and the hair may be dyed with either black or white fusible glass paints. The Embrace Pendants are available in two sizes (2-inch and 1.25-inch).

Each pendant also includes a hand-dyed, 36-inch silk ribbon that may be threaded through the small hole in the pendant. For those who desire a “dressy” look, a sterling silver pinch bail may be purchased separately.
